

Nevada's Portrait of a Learner Draft Graduate Competencies

Portrait Domain	Description	Attributes	DRAFT Graduate-Level Competencies
Empowering	How will I grow in my learning? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reflect on my personal strengths and unique qualities to leverage them in all aspects of my life Approach learning and life experiences with curiosity and a growth-focused attitude to find ways to connect them to my passions and interests Be self-aware, monitor my needs, and advocate for myself in my relationships, experiences, and in a variety of environments Strive for balance by asking for support related to my intellectual growth physical, mental, social, and emotional well-being. 	Balance	Analyze goals and prioritize tasks in order to manage time effectively
		Curiosity	Engage their curiosity and perspectives about diverse matters to guide their learning and defend their decisions.
		Self-Advocacy	Embrace their strengths and challenges with a well-grounded sense of confidence, empowering them to advocate for themselves.
Connecting	How do I build and sustain relationships and community? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Build connections by actively listening, sharing ideas, and collaborating toward common goals Communicate effectively, adapting my communication style to different audiences and situations, while using a variety of tools and technologies Show empathy and respect towards individuals and groups of diverse backgrounds, cultures, and experiences exploring multiple viewpoints to foster a sense of belonging 	Communicate	Demonstrate empathy to sustain relationships with various communities by communicating effectively in different situations.
			Collaborate respectfully with individuals of diverse viewpoints, share and exchange information, utilize tools and technologies, to contribute toward mutual goals.
Impacting	How do I contribute to make an impact? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Apply knowledge and skills to make a purposeful impact on my community Evaluate and analyze data, ideas, and interactions as critical thinkers and problem-solvers to overcome challenges Participate in public discourse and decision-making processes to promote opportunities of civic engagement 	Problem Solving	Apply critical and creative thinking skills to generate viable solutions across contexts.
			Analyze data and evidence to defend possible outcomes or predictions.
		Broad Application of Skills	Apply knowledge and skills to reach goals under various conditions in the community.
			Apply expertise in selecting appropriate strategies to drive innovative solutions in the community.
Thriving	How will I thrive? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Stay resilient and courageous in the face of challenges and changing contexts, learning from my mistakes and growing as a result Practice intellectual agility, continuously learning, unlearning, and relearning to adapt to evolving opportunities in my school, workplace, and community Be a person of integrity, making and keeping commitments to my peers and community while staying true to my values and beliefs 	Resilience	Investigate and adapt to evolving opportunities as they continuously learn, unlearn, and relearn to become successful, productive, contributing members of their communities.

Nevada's Portrait of a Learner Draft Graduate Competencies

